

Serbian Verb Conjugation Cheat Sheet

Serbian verbs change depending on who performs the action (I, you, he/she, we, you, they). Once you know the core patterns, you can conjugate hundreds of verbs easily. Use this page as a quick visual reference.

1: MAIN VERB GROUPS

1. -ITI verbs (Example: RADITI – to work) ja radim, ti radiš, on/ona radi, mi radimo, vi radite, oni rade
2. -ATI verbs (Example: PRIČATI – to talk) ja pričam, ti pričaš, on/ona priča, mi pričamo, vi pričate, oni pričaju
3. -ETI verbs (Example: VOLETI – to love) ja volim, ti voliš, on/ona voli, mi volimo, vi volite, oni vole

2: COMMON IRREGULAR VERBS

BITI (to be) - sam, si, je, smo, ste, su

IMATI (to have) - imam, imaš, ima, imamo, imate, imaju

HTETI (to want) - hoću, hoćeš, hoće, hoćemo, hoćete, hoće

MOĆI (can) - mogu, možeš, može, možemo, možete, mogu

4: MINI PRACTICE

Fill in the blanks using the correct verb form:

1. Ja _____ (raditi) u Beogradu.
2. Oni _____ (voleti) sneg.
3. Mi _____ (biti) spremni.
4. Ti _____ (imati) vremena?
5. On _____ (moći) da dođe sutra.

5: QUICK TIPS

- Learn verbs with their infinitive (-ti) endings.
- Group verbs by ending pattern, not by meaning.
- Watch out for contractions in fast speech.
- Always practice verbs in real sentences to build memory.